As businesses begin to prepare for a world beyond COVID-19, it is never too early to think about how to cope with and manage the futures ahead of us.

In this webinar, participants will receive an introduction to scenario planning and discuss how to make use of scenario planning to:

- Help decision-makers to enhance their ability to perceive and interpret change, and to understand driving forces behind it.
- Provide a structured framework for dealing with uncertainty, ambiguity, and complexity.
- Help organizations to develop long-term, robust strategies that can withstand a variety of future developments.
